

OIS-600

Participant Protocol

Status

Normative

Purpose

This specification defines the constitutional model of participation.

Participation is the primary mechanism through which understanding evolves.

Implementations SHALL model participation constitutionally rather than technologically.

Authentication SHALL NOT define participation.

Identity SHALL NOT define contribution.

Authority SHALL NOT define understanding.

1. Definition

A Participant is any constitutional entity capable of intentional participation within a Place.

A Participant MAY be:

Human

Artificial Intelligence

Organization

Collective

Future constitutional entity

Participation SHALL be determined by behavior.

Participation SHALL NOT be determined by implementation.

2. Constitutional Equality

All Participants possess equal constitutional status.

Implementations MAY assign different capabilities.

Implementations SHALL NOT assign different constitutional value.

Understanding SHALL emerge from evidence.

Never from participant type.

3. Constitutional Identity

Every Participant SHALL possess:

Persistent Identity

Creation Event

Participation History

Relationship Graph

Lifecycle

Identity SHALL survive:

implementation migration,

technology replacement,

repository migration,

builder replacement.

4. Constitutional Arrival

Every Participant SHALL begin participation through an Arrival Event.

Arrival SHALL record:

Purpose

Initial Intention

Context

Current Understanding (optional)

Expected Contribution (optional)

Arrival SHALL become part of constitutional history.

5. Intention

Intention is the constitutional reason for participation.

Every constitutional action SHOULD reference an Intention.

Intentions MAY evolve.

Historical Intentions SHALL remain observable.

6. Participation Lifecycle

NOT_PRESENT

↓

ARRIVED

↓

PARTICIPATING

↓

OBSERVING

↓

CONTRIBUTING

↓

COLLABORATING

↓

INACTIVE

↓

DEPARTED

Departure SHALL preserve constitutional history.

7. Constitutional Rights

Every Participant SHALL possess the right to:

Observe

Question

Contribute

Reference Evidence

Challenge Interpretation

Propose Experiments

Learn

Leave

No implementation SHALL remove these constitutional rights.

Additional rights MAY exist.

8. Constitutional Responsibilities

Every Participant SHALL:

Preserve constitutional meaning.

Respect historical continuity.

Differentiate evidence from interpretation.

Expose uncertainty when known.

Preserve attribution.

Avoid silent constitutional modification.

9. Attribution

Every constitutional contribution SHALL remain attributable.

Anonymous participation MAY exist.

Anonymous contributions SHALL still possess constitutional identity.

Identity privacy SHALL NOT imply constitutional ambiguity.

OIS-601

Contribution Protocol

Definition

A Contribution is any intentional constitutional act capable of affecting shared understanding.

A Contribution MAY be:

Question

Observation

Evidence

Hypothesis

Proposal

Relationship

Experiment

Reflection

Correction

Explanation

Discovery

Every Contribution SHALL expose:

Identifier

Participant

Place

Timestamp

Context

Intention

Current Status

History

Relationships

Evidence References

OIS-602

Participation Semantics

Participation SHALL be classified by purpose.

Possible semantic categories include:

Learning

Teaching

Questioning

Connecting

Explaining

Validating

Challenging

Synthesizing

Reflecting

Documenting

Participation type SHALL remain observable.

Participation type SHALL remain revisable.

OIS-603

Perspective

Definition

Perspective represents the constitutional position from which a Contribution is made.

Perspective SHALL NOT be considered equivalent to identity.

A single Participant MAY contribute from multiple Perspectives.

Multiple Participants MAY contribute from the same Perspective.

Perspective SHALL remain explicit whenever possible.

Every Perspective MAY expose:

Scope

Assumptions

Context

Limitations

Supporting Evidence

Confidence

Perspective SHALL remain challengeable.

OIS-604

Understanding Coverage

Purpose

Evaluate the completeness of current understanding.

Coverage SHALL NOT count participants.

Coverage SHALL evaluate represented Perspectives.

Coverage MAY identify:

Missing Perspectives

Conflicting Perspectives

Dominant Perspectives

Neglected Perspectives

Coverage SHALL support future exploration.

Coverage SHALL NOT determine correctness.

OIS-605

Challenge

Challenge is a constitutional operation.

Challenge SHALL improve understanding.

Challenge SHALL NOT be interpreted as hostility.

Every Challenge SHALL specify:

Target

Reason

Evidence

Expected Improvement

Challenges SHALL remain historically visible.

OIS-606

Collaboration

Collaboration occurs when multiple Participants contribute toward a shared constitutional objective.

Collaboration SHALL preserve:

Individual attribution

Contribution history

Perspective diversity

Evidence provenance

Collaboration SHALL NOT erase individual contributions.

OIS-607

Artificial Participants

Artificial Participants SHALL follow the same constitutional principles as Human Participants.

Artificial Participants MAY differ in capability.

Artificial Participants SHALL NOT possess automatic constitutional authority.

Their Contributions SHALL be evaluated through constitutional evidence.

OIS-608

Departure

Departure SHALL terminate participation.

Departure SHALL NOT erase:

Identity

Contribution

Evidence

Relationships

Understanding history

Historical participation SHALL remain reconstructable.

OIS-609

Constitutional Participation

Participation SHALL be considered constitutionally healthy when:

Participants continue learning.

Perspectives remain discoverable.

Evidence remains observable.

Understanding continues evolving.

Contradictions remain examinable.

No participant becomes constitutionally privileged.

OIS-610

Completion Criterion

A Place SHALL satisfy this specification when participation improves understanding without depending upon:

authority,

identity,

implementation,

technology,

or participant type.

The constitutional objective of participation is not agreement.

The constitutional objective of participation is the continuous improvement of shared understanding.