Constitutional Evolution Protocol

Status

Normative

Purpose

This specification defines how Organodynamics evolves while preserving constitutional identity.

No constitutional evolution SHALL invalidate constitutional continuity.

1. Constitutional Principle

The Constitution exists to preserve identity.

Evolution exists to improve understanding.

Neither SHALL eliminate the other.

2. Scope of Evolution

The following constitutional objects MAY evolve:

Canon

Defaults

Protocols

Reference Implementations

Terminology

Examples

Validation Procedures

The following SHALL NOT evolve through ordinary constitutional processes:

Historical Truth

Identity

Historical Continuity

Meaning Preservation

3. Evolution Trigger

Constitutional evolution SHALL begin only when at least one of the following occurs:

New Evidence

Repeated Constitutional Ambiguity

Implementation Failure

Improved Explanation

Observed Contradiction

External Discovery

Unresolved Constitutional Limitation

Evolution SHALL NOT begin because of popularity.

4. Constitutional Proposal

Every proposed evolution SHALL create a Constitutional Proposal.

A Proposal SHALL contain:

Identifier

Motivation

Affected Specifications

Supporting Evidence

Contradictory Evidence

Expected Constitutional Benefit

Compatibility Analysis

Migration Strategy

Alternative Solutions

Current Status

5. Proposal Lifecycle

Rejected proposals SHALL remain permanently referenceable.

6. Compatibility

Every accepted constitutional evolution SHALL declare:

Backward Compatibility

Forward Compatibility

Migration Requirements

Breaking Changes

Expected Constitutional Impact

Unknown Risks

7. Constitutional Versioning

Every constitutional publication SHALL expose:

Major Version

Minor Version

Patch Version

Canonical Identifier

Compatibility Statement

Historical Relationship

No constitutional publication SHALL overwrite a previous publication.

8. Deprecation

Constitutional concepts MAY become deprecated.

Deprecation SHALL NOT imply deletion.

Deprecated concepts SHALL remain:

Documented

Referenceable

Historically explainable

Migration guidance SHALL accompany deprecation.

9. Constitutional Review

Every constitutional evolution SHALL remain reviewable.

Review SHALL preserve:

Original Proposal

Discussion

Evidence

Experiments

Final Interpretation

Reasoning

Historical Trace

No accepted constitutional change SHALL become historically opaque.

10. Builder Participation

Builders MAY participate in constitutional evolution.

Participation SHALL occur through constitutional proposals.

Implementation SHALL NOT redefine constitutional meaning.

Builders improve the discipline by improving its explanation.

11. Artificial Participants

Artificial Participants MAY originate constitutional proposals.

Artificial Participants SHALL NOT independently canonize proposals.

Canonization remains a constitutional process.

12. Public Review

Every constitutional proposal MAY be published through the Public Library.

Publication SHALL preserve:

Discussion

Evidence

Alternative Interpretations

Experiment Results

Historical Timeline

Public visibility SHALL improve constitutional learning.

13. Constitutional Memory

Every constitutional evolution SHALL increase constitutional memory.

Nothing learned SHALL disappear.

Understanding MAY change.

History SHALL remain.

14. Constitutional Completion

No constitutional version SHALL declare itself final.

Every publication SHALL acknowledge future revision.

Constitutional stability SHALL coexist with constitutional evolution.

15. Final Constitutional Principle

The purpose of Organodynamics is not to preserve documents.

The purpose of Organodynamics is to preserve the continuous ability to improve shared understanding without losing meaning, history, identity, or sovereignty.
